The producer will complete this form in addition to form FSA-1122 and provide acceptable documentation to COC within 30 calendar days of submitting the PARP application. Failure to timely provide acceptable documentation will result in the COC denying the 2018 or 2019 allowable gross revenue adjustment.

New Producer in 2020:

Producers who began their farm operation in 2020 will certify their actual allowable gross revenue from 2020 on form FSA-1122 and their expected allowable gross revenue in 2020 on this form. Acceptable documentation must be provided within 30 calendar days of filing the PARP application. Acceptable documentation includes, but is not limited to financial documents, sales contracts or purchase agreements, documentation supporting production capacity, use of existing production capacity or physical alterations that demonstrate production capacity. The documentation must demonstrate the expected level of gross revenue prior to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Acceptable documentation must have been generated in the ordinary course of business and dated prior to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

New Producer in 2019:
